

Hazmat Tank Trucks and Rail Cars, Crude Oil, Flammable Liquid, LPG and Rail Safety Emergency Response Training by Industry Partners

WHO SHOULD ATTEND:

Community First Responders, and Municipal, Industry and Government representatives involved in emergency preparedness and response

BC Regional TRANSCAER® Committee in partnership with Taylor Industrial Mutual Aid Group and Emergency Response Assistance Canada are hosting a Transportation Community Awareness and Emergency Response Training day on Wednesday, Sept 26, 2018

FREE: However you must pre-register by September 14, 2018

PPE Required: Safety Footwear, Hard Hat, Safety Vest and Glasses

FULL DAY SESSION: 0830 to 16:30 OR- (link to register)
SHORTENED EVENING SESSION ~~6:00 TO 9:00~~ – (link to register)

Event Location: Community
Hall, 9896 Cherry Ave. West
Taylor, BC

Classroom and field
Station training

Lunch will be available on site

INDUSTRY AND GOVERNMENTS REPS WILL PROVIDE AWARENESS LEVEL INFORMATION ON THE FOLLOWING:

- Road and Rail Transportation of Dangerous Goods
- Roles and Responsibilities during a Hazmat response
- Dangerous goods containers and safety features
- Product and Safety Information