

Commercial Explosives and Transportation Technical Seminar for First Responders February 15, 2019

WHO CAN ATTEND:

Fire Departments, police, municipal and other government representatives involved in emergency preparedness and response

WHERE:

Surrey Fire Services Training Facility at 14923 64th Avenue
Surrey, BC

The International Society of Explosives Engineers, Western Canada Chapter and the BC Regional TRANSCAER[®] Committee in partnership with the explosive industry technical representatives is offering a free 3 hour presentation on Class 1 Explosives and transportation near your community.

FREE: However you must pre-register by February 12, 2019. Numbers limited to classroom size at the training centre so register early

PARKING: Available onsite

PRE-REGISTER BY E-MAIL: to dandg@shaw.ca (indicate participant name, organization name and E-mail address for those who wish to register)

3.0 HOUR SESSION

Site Registration and Welcome:	08:30 AM
Classroom Session	9:00 -12:00

INDUSTRY REPRESENTATIVES WILL PROVIDE INFORMATION ON:

- Overview of explosives and their safety
- Road and Rail Transportation Containers
- Emergency Response for Transportation Accidents
- Product and Safety Information